Joseph Schooling crowned Singapore Swimming Association's Swimmer of the Year 2014

SINGAPORE, 25 April 2015 – Joseph Isaac Schooling has been crowned Swimmer of the Year 2014 by the Singapore Swimming Association (SSA) at the SSA Awards Night held at Hotel Fort Canning. The award was presented by Mr Lawrence Wong, Minister for Culture, Community and Youth, and Second Minister of Communications and Information. Colin Schooling, father of Joseph Schooling was present to receive the award on his behalf.

“Thank you for the Award. 2014 was really a successful year for me. I am lucky and fortunate to have done well, winning a number of medals at the Glasgow Commonwealth Games and Incheon Asian Games,” said Joseph in a recorded message from Texas.

“Now my attention is on the SEA Games and I am excited. Since I was a kid, I wanted to perform in front of my home crowd, having thousands of people cheering me on. I am looking forward to the Games.”

Joseph's coach, Sergio Lopez, was also named Swimming Coach of the Year 2014. Sergio coached Joseph to Singapore's first swimming medal in the Commonwealth Games as well and Singapore's first Asian Games gold medal in men's swimming since Ang Peng Siong's 100m freestyle gold at the 1982 Delhi Games.

“It is an honour to be given such an award. I was coaching Joseph when he was in Bolles last year and I was not surprised by his achievements at the Commonwealth and Asian Games. In fact, this award is a justification of the hard work that Joseph and I put in the pool. Joseph is continuing to improve and the sky is the limit for him,” said Lopez.

SSA also announced the names of athletes that will be representing Singapore in diving, swimming, synchronized swimming and water polo. A total of 8 divers, 29 swimmers, 12 synchronized swimmers and 34 water polo players have made the list. The Men's and Women's water polo team will leave for a training tour to Japan on 5 May and the final squad of 13 players selected for the Men's and Women's Water polo SEA Games team will be announced after the trip on 17 May 2105.

“This will be my fifth SEA Games that I am competing in but this will be the most memorable and special one for me because it will be Singapore. We are gunning for our 26th consecutive gold medal for men's water polo and we are looking forward to play in front of a full capacity at the OCBC Aquatic Centre,” said Nigel Tay.

The SSA Awards Night is an annual event to honour athletes, coaches, technical officials and volunteers who have contributed to the Association for the past year.
